

BE CONTENT WITH WHAT YOU HAVE

The seed of unnecessary fear in the heart of a Christian is forgetfulness — an inability to remember and trust what the God of the universe has said and done. (Joshua 21:45)

God has said, “I will never leave you nor forsake you,” (Joshua 3:10; 1:3; 1:5)

‘I Will Never Leave You’ (Psalm 138:8;10; Joshua 1:5,9; Hebrews 13:5)

What You Don’t Have (Hebrews 13:5; 10:34)

Grace Enough: Be content with what you have. (2 Corinthians 12:9-10; 1 Timothy 6:8; Philippians 4:11)

“Silver” Can Ruin Us (1 Timothy 6:10; Matthew 26:15; 27:3; Luke 16:14)

Content and Courageous (Hebrews 13:5-6; Psalm 118:8-9; Joshua 1:6-7,9; Deuteronomy 31:6; Matthew 6:32)

SUMMER LECTURE SERIES (12-week series)

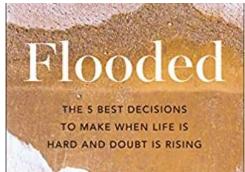

THE MEANING AND HISTORY OF AMERICA'S FOUNDING DOCUMENTS

Sunday at 6pm beginning,
June 27

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASSES FOR ALL AGES RESTARTS JUNE 27!

Classes we'll be offering: Pre K-K , Jodi Leach; 1st and 2nd grade, Nancy Malster/Dawn Lemasters; 3rd-4th grade, Tyler and Alyssa Nibert; 5th and 6th, Eric and Erin Davis; Sr. Youth, Craig Hellinger; adult classes, led by: Don Sampson, Bill Shackle and Kevin Leach.

RELEVANT & FAITH-BUILDING MIDWEEK ADULT CLASSES RESUME JUNE 30 @ 7PM

Two, six-week faith-enhancing studies: Dawn Lemasters will be leading the ladies on a study that'll encourage you to look ahead at what is possible, and replace your doubts with trust, through the book entitled: "Flooded: The 5 Best Decisions To Make When Life Is Hard and Doubt is Rising."

And Zack will lead a six-week study on Spiritual Warfare. Where we'll examine the fight that we're in and answer questions like: Why it's so hard to find some peace of mind? Well, peace is hard to come by when you live in a warzone. And like it or not, you are in a war — a very serious one. This war is cosmic in its proportions.

Sign-up in the foyer to enroll in one of these two classes slated to begin June 30, 2021 at 7 pm.

TUESDAY SCHOOL STAFF MEETING

TWO STEPS TOWARD KNOWING GOD'S WILL

If you want to know God's will, then you can start with these two steps:

1. Admit that you need guidance. Psalm 25:9 says, "He guides the humble in what is right and teaches them his way" (NIV). If you've never felt God guiding you, maybe it's because you've never admitted that you need his guidance. You go to work assuming that you know what to do without praying about it. You make financial decisions, vacation plans, or career decisions before stopping to pray about them. If you're single, you might even ask someone out on a date without first asking for God's guidance.

You think you know, but you might want to stop and admit that you need guidance, because it's the first step in getting God's will for your life.

2. Ask God in faith for directions. James 1:5-6, "If you want to know what God wants you to do, ask him, and he will gladly tell you, for he is always ready to give a bountiful supply of wisdom to all who ask him; he will not resent it. But when you ask him, be sure that you really expect him to tell you, for a doubtful mind will be as unsettled as a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind" (TLB).

Notice there are two keys to knowing God's wisdom. First, you've got to ask the right person: God. You don't ask your hairdresser, mechanic, or radio talk show host. You need to ask the right person!

Then, you ask with the right attitude: expecting God to answer. Have you ever asked God to lead you, but you didn't really expect him to? You must ask, expecting God to answer. God honors faith, and he promises wisdom for the next step of your life.
